Class of 2014

Matthew Janger
Principal

Dear Spy Ponder Class of 2014,

Congratulations on completing your high school education! You have graduated from a great school in a great community. As you head off to your next stage of life, be it college, career, or gap year, I hope you will remember the words of Mark Twain, "I have never let my schooling interfere with my education."

High school is a strange combination of prison and freedom. Education is the path to freedom. Schooling can feel like prison.

We teach you the liberal arts or as the ancient Greeks called them, the artis liberalis. These are literally the subjects that that were considered essential for a free person to know to free the mind and to act as free people in society.

Imagine what an opportunity you had at Arlington High School. For four years, you had the opportunity to study art, music, family skills, science, literature, history, mathematics, science, and more. We came together as a community to play sports, form clubs, put on shows, travel, and more. We took every student who lives in town, and it's all free!

We also required you to come. School is a little bit like prison. We ring bells to tell you where to go. We give you detention, if you don't show up on time. We test you, grade you, and take attendance. This can suck a lot of the fun out of learning. I often think that the worst thing we do to high school students is to require that you come to high school.

Here's the good news! You have finished your final year of compulsory, public education. That means that from now on, you will get to choose whether you study and you will have to pay for your education. I hope that you will choose to be free and to grow.

I leave you with one more quotation, from Ghandi, "Live as if you will die tomorrow. Study as if you will live forever."

Good luck in whatever you choose to do. I hope you will stay in touch!

Go Ponders!

Dr. Janger

"Our Wish"

We hope that the days come easy and the moments pass slow, and each road leads you to where you want to go.
And if you're faced with a choice, and you have to choose, We hope you choose the one that means the most to you
And if one door opens to another door closed,
I hope you keep on walking till you find the window,
If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile.

But more than anything, more than anything,
Our wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big and your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you and wants the same things, too,
Yeah this is our wish.

We hope you never look back, but you never forget,
All the ones who love you, in the place you left,
We hope you always forgive, and you never regret,
And you help somebody every chance you get,
Oh, you find God's grace in every mistake,
And you always give more than you take.
- Rascal Flatts

We love you Meg! Love always, Mom, Dad and Kevin.
